

ChickenFat Klezmer Orchestra

Customer Testimonial:

Thanks for the memorable performance! I never would have imagined that a klezmer band could be the key that turns a get-together into a raucous soiree, but thanks to ChickenFat, I have a new respect for and understanding of klezmer and how it can light up a room. – Lisa

ChickenFat Klezmer Orchestra is a fun and energetic band that is passionate about bringing diverse musical styles from around the world to Chicago. We start with traditional klezmer music, and add to it from our many influences including Balkan and Mediterranean tunes and songs sung in Ladino, Yiddish, Hebrew, and Russian. We love playing live and always get the crowd dancing!

We have been playing together since 2008 and have played at such venues and festivals as the Greater Chicago Jewish Fest, and the Downtown Seder at City Winery, The Edgewater Artists Festival, Martyrs', Make Music Chicago, the Glenwood Ave Arts Fest, the Lakeview East Arts Festival and more.
